High quality

Quality living: Buyers have a unique chance to tap into the real estate market in Murray Bridge, with AV Jennings releasing a collection of new designer homes at the popular Pathways development. The Parkview Collection is a quality group of eight AV Jennings homes, which has only five remaining, are currently available for purchase. Construction is now complete on the homes, with open inspections occurring every Sunday from 2pm to 3pm. Designs include three or four bedrooms, two bathrooms, double garage, high ceilings and much more. These complete home packages start at an affordable $297,000. If you are a first home buyer you may be eligible for the $25,000 government grant, plus for a limited time, AV Jennings is offering generous savings off the price of these homes. The Parkview Collection is a hassle-free opportunity for home buyers to purchase a new quality home in an area which offers a fantastic lifestyle. The collection has been built on the best allotments in Pathways - overlooking the reserve and playground. - Details: For further information contact sales consultant Paul Clifford, of Masons Real Estate, on 0438 813 916.
